

International Law

and the European Union in the Constitution

Warsaw, 23 – 24 October 2018

Tuesday, 23 October 2018

10:00 – 10:15

Opening address

Prof. Mariusz Muszyński, Constitutional Tribunal; Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University

10:15 – 12:45

Panel discussion I – Europeanisation and Internationalisation of the Constitution

Prof. Gerd Morgenthaler, University of Siegen

1. Prof. Albrecht Weber, University of Osnabrück:

The Europeanisation and Internationalisation of the Constitution

2. Prof. Tanja Karakamisheva-Jovanovska, Ss. Cyril and Methodius University of Skopje:

The Internationalisation of Constitutional Law or the Constitutionalisation of International Law – a One-Way Road or a Complex Highway?

3. Prof. Maciej Perkowski, University of Białystok:

Primacy or a Compromise? On the Relationship between National and International Legal Systems

4. Prof. Adelheid Puttler, Ruhr-University Bochum:

The Principle of Friendliness towards International Law in the German Constitution
Discussion

12:45 – 13:45

Lunch at the Constitutional Tribunal

14:00 – 16:00

Panel discussion II – Constitutional Courts in Relation to International Courts

Prof. Mariusz Muszyński, Constitutional Tribunal; Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University

1. Prof. Dirk Hanschel, Martin Luther University of Halle-Wittenberg:

Establishing and ensuring the primacy of the EU-law by the CJEU

2. Prof. S. Schiedermaier, Leipzig University:

The Federal Constitutional Court and the European Court of Justice – Recent Developments

3. Prof. András Zs. Varga, Pázmány Péter Catholic University:

The Treaty on the European Union and Constitutional Identities: the Role of Constitutional Courts

4. Dr. Michael Meier, University of Zurich:

Constitutional Review and the Relation to ECHR in Switzerland
Discussion

Wednesday, 24 October 2018

10:00 – 12:30

Panel discussion III – EU-Law and the Constitution

Dr Szymon Pawłowski, Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University

1. Prof. Zbigniew Cieślak / Prof. Bartosz Majchrzak, Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University:

A Systemic Approach to the Axiology of Modern Constitutions

2. Prof. Theo Öhlinger, University of Vienna:

The autonomy and primacy of EU-law in member states from the perspective of the Austrian constitutional law

3. Prof. Genowefa Grabowska, Management University in Warsaw:

Between EU-Law and Polish Law. Constitutional Aspects

4. Dr. Jörg Geerlings, University of Cologne:

The Acceptance of European Law

Discussion

12:30 – 13:30

Lunch at the Constitutional Tribunal

13:30 – 15:00

Panel IV – The Conformity of Investment Protection and Promotion Agreements with the Constitution and EU-law

Prof. Elżbieta Karska, Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University

1. Prof. Marc Bungenberg, Saarland University:

A Possible New Beginning: a Multilateral Investment Court and the Rule of Law?

2. Dr Marek Jeżewski:

Can a Constitutional Provision Be in Breach of Investment Protection and Promotion Agreements?

3. Prof. Steffen Hindelang, University of Southern Denmark:

Protecting European Investors Abroad – Lessons from the CJEU's Recent Ruling in "Achmea"

Discussion

15:30

Closing remarks

Prof. Elżbieta Karska, Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University